CANADA. Hay Fever Unknown.

Certain it is, and many years of careful experience are back of the statement, that hay fever and kindred annoying and troublesome summer affections, distressing to so many thousands all over the country, recurring regularly as July and Angust, are absolutely unknown in the "Highlands of Ontario." Thousands of people go to Muskoka. Georgian Bay or the Lake of the Bays every year for nothing else but to avoid hay fever, and find perfect immunity from the aliment, and many by going there regularly for a period of a few years are said to be permanently cured.

Hay fever booklet can be had free for the asking by applying to

ATTRACTIVE BOOKS FOR CON-VENIENCE OF TRAVELERS.

Suggestions of Timely Interest to Those Seeking Rest and Recreation at the Inland Resorts.

Those interested in visiting the Catskill nountains this season will find much help in the very attractive book issued by the Ulster and Delaware railroad, and which may be had by calling at the bureau. It is nicely illustrated and contains much valuable information about this region. The Boston and Maine railroad has sent to the bureau a supply of this year's resort book for distribution to the patrons of this bureau.

A very valuable book is issued by the management of the Jamestown exposition, showing list of hotels and boarding houses around the exposition. A supply of these books has been received, as well as other information upon the exposition.

There is always a good demand for the neat little book issued by the Western Maryland railroad. For a few days past the bureau was without this valuable guide book, but has plenty on hand-now.

Harpers Ferry, W. Va., is attracting great many visitors just at this time. hotel that has stood the test is the Lock-wood; beautifully situated and the table and service are of the first order. Mr. A. P. Daniel is the proprietor.

Another hotel at Harpers Ferry that is first-class in every particular is the Hill Top House, so named from its unique lo-cation. The house has modern improvements, has high elevation and alive with all sorts of amusements. Mr. T. S. Lovett

Mt. Clifton, Hedgesville, W. Va., is an ideal resort, beautifully situated on a high elevation, has plenty of shade, pure artesian water, fine table and modern conveniences. It is only two hours from Washington, D. C., via the Baltimore and Ohio. Bernard Kilmer is the proprietor.

ADIRONDACK MOUNTAINS.

pecial Correspondence of The Star. LAKE BONAPARTE, N. Y., July 19, 1907. While Americans are often heard be moaning the fact that each year thousands of their countrymen and women go abroad capitals, it might be well to consider the thousands of Europeans who annually visit American resorts and about whom little or in the history of the region. This, of course, includes Canadians, for while the dominion is "just next door" its inhabitants must come under the "not American" list. At Saranac Lake, Lake Placid. Paul Smith's, Loon Lake, Bluff Point, Lake Champlain and a dozen other resorts the hotel registers are a quarter covered by foreign names, with Great Britain, Germany and France leading. A goodly num-ber of Cubans are found, and-something quite new-a large number of Mexicans and South Americans, comparatively speak-contingent may be mentioned Hendrick Cavling, the famous author and statesman of Denmark, who is here for a long stay; the Duke and Duchess de la Sorenzo of Spain, who are cottage residents at Sara-Spain, who are cottage residents at Sara-nac Lake; Gen. Hensen von Tulmar and family of Sweden, who are in camp along the Salmon river; Senor Don and Senora H. De Carro del Feronville of Cuba and Madrid, who, together with their pretty daughters, who are students in Washington and Bryn Mawr, are guests at Cascade Lake for the remainder of the season. Dr. Danderand of France, who is a guest at Lake Bonaparte, is making the strongest kind of a bid for the angling honors of the season, though still behind Father Zimmerman of Georgetown and Baltimore, who up to the present writing holds the record. Dr. Danderand says that he has forgotten all the rest of the world and its anxieties for the time being and inord of the Georgetown University professor. The doctor is himself a dean of medicine and a member of the French Academy. Admiral Dewey, accompanied by Mrs. Dewey, is an expected guest at Bluff Point during the coming week. The admiral also expects to take in the St. Lawrence river

What is still known as the Harrison cottage, at Loon Lake, where President and Mrs. Harrison remained for a number of months during the last illness of Mrs. Harrison, is occupied for the season by Miss Harte, the only daughter of Bret Harte, and a number of young lady friends from St. Louis, Baltimore and Washington. Among them are the Misses Farland of Washington and Richmond, Miss Gaines of Georgetown and the Misses Wellman of Mount Vernon avenue, Baltimore. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, widow of the late President, is expected at her cottage on Fourth Lake, Fulton Chain, tomorrow or Monday. Mrs. Harrison will be accompanied by Mrs. John Rathburn of Indianapolis and Mrs. George Stevenson of Mun-

cle. Ind. William H. Thompson and family of Chevy Chase are in camp on Little Tup-per Lake for the season, occupying the per Lake for the season, occupying the pretty cottage of Dr. William Nolan of New York. The Thompsons expect to have as guests Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wade and their two daughters, Lillian and Grace of Nashville, Tenn.

BAR HARBOR.

Special Correspondence of The Star. BAR HARBOR, Me., July 20, 1907.

There are to be no warships at Bar Har bor this summer, so a dispatch received here this week from the Secretary of the Navy states. Society regrets this news exceedingly, for the presence of the fleet in past years has been a big impetus to entertaining, and as the fleet usually came late in September it lengthened the season out until almost the first of October. In the light of the Japanese controversy Bar Harbor has been left out in the cold, and the inhabitants of the Pacific coast will have the pleasure of entertaining the gallant officers this summer. If the ships do not come there will be the customary and traditional dearth of eligible young men, the summer resort's ever-present wall.

The members of the Summer Residents' Mrs. W. D. Sparrow is the manager of Sparrow's Inn at Harpers Ferry. This inn is situated on Camp Hill, overlooking the Shenandoah river and mountains. It has a beautiful location, is high and cool, and the Matter and the Sparrow's Inn at Harpers Ferry. This inn is situated on Camp Hill, overlooking the Bar Harbor Property Owners' Association. This action is taken with the view of the addition to the membership of the association. The care with t and the present members of the Summer in a body to the new organization. The board of directors chosen includes Dr. Robert Amory, DeWitt Clinton Blair, L. E. Opdycke, John S. Kennedy, J. L. Ketter-linus, Dr. Hasket Derby, Clement B. Newbold, Lea McIlvaine Lupper, Gen. Thomas Hamlin Hubbard and George B. Dorr.

An interesting society wedding of the near future was announced at Bar Harbor this week, to which society will look for-ward with much interest. The principals are Joseph Wilshire and Miss Helen Simpson Seeley of Cincinnati, and the wedding is to take place at Hillhurst, the Seeley residence here, Tuesday, August 6. Although a Cincinnati girl, Miss Seeley is well known in other cities, where she has many friends. She is among the most prominent of the social set here, and has ests of friends among the summer colony. Mr. Wilshire is a well known business man of Cincinnati. The wedding will be rather quiet, as the Seeleys have been in mourn ing for some years. The first meeting for the season of the Pot and Kettle was held this week, with Arthur D. Addison of Washington as chief caterer and about a dozen members of the exclusive club enjoyed the evening. The regular meetings of the club are to be held, as usual, semi-monthly throughout the sum- | ment.

It is good news that Capt. Bush's annual reception, which is the largest private function of the season, will be held this season after all, and the Pot and Kettle will be the scene of an enjoyable affair, as usual. Capt. Bush, whose health had made him undecided about coming to Bar Harbor this summer, has reconsidered his decision, and will come for a short stay some time in August. It is noticed that entertaining has started rather later than usual this season, and there are, if anything, fewer private affairs, most of the cottagers being content to rest after the strain of an unusually brilliant winter.

The dedication of the new Temple of Mucomment, and society is looking forward to the second concert, which comes Friday of the coming week, when Campanari will be the soloist. The building, which is mos unique, is an attempt to carry out a Greek ideal modified to suit modern conditions and the special purposes of the building. The form and detail follow the Greek models as nearly as circumstances permit. The community at large should be especially grateful to the promoters of the project, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mrs. Robert Abbe. Henry Lane Eno, George B. Dorr and George W. Vanderbilt. These members of the quintet were the originators, and allowed nothing to discourage them. The beautiful building should prove a lasting monument to their efforts. Mrs. Henry F. Dimock is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Cary Hutchinson, at Cleft-stone cottage. Mrs. John R. McLean of Washington came Saturday morning, and is at the Gray cottage, on Cottage street, for the summer months.

Mrs. J. Biddle Porter entertained at dinner Monday at Wyandotte in honor of Mrs. Berden of Rome, who is in Bar Harbor until August as the guest of her sister Mrs. E. C. Hobson, at Cornersmeet. Mrs Berdan is the mother-in-law of F. Marion the American social colony in Rome Among the guests were Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. John W. Auchincloss, Mrs. E. W. Bass, Mrs. L. E. Opdycke, Mrs. E. C. Hobson, Mrs. C. W. Ostrander and Mrs. Martin Van Buren.
Mrs. W. W. Finley of Washington, wife of President Finley of the Southern railway, who is expected later, has arrived for the summer, and is at Boscobel, where she will spend the season. The Wood cottage on High street has been rented to Mrs. Harriet Blaine Beale, the daughter of the late James G. Blaine, who came this week for the season. Mrs. Francis Howe Johnson, who has been among the most prominent social leaders in years past, will not be here this summer, as she is traveling in Europe. During the season her cottage is rented to Dr. Guy Fairfax Whiting of Washington. The management of the horse show has decided to hold matinee races this year in connection with the show, and these are

ALLENHURST, N. J., July 20, 1907. Automobilists have taken very kindly to a scheme which Mr. J. Hull Davidson, proprietor of the Allenhurst Inn. hit upon this week for their convenience and that of their friends. At the inn an information and registration bureau is now conducted. where motorists touring through this section may stop and ascertain the best roads to take for through points. They may also leave any letters or messages for friends who they expect to have follow them along the route. All Allenhurst society had its attention taken up pretty much of the last few days with a cotillon which will be given at the Curlew this evening. Thirty couples are down to participate and very elaborate favors have been contributed by Proprietor Arthur B. Hammond.

The Allenhurst Inn is entertaining from Washington Frank R. Bruce and his sister, Miss Gladys Bruce.

SEABRIGHT.

Special Correspondence of The Star SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 20, 1907. At the Peninsula Hotel one of the most enjoyable full-dress dances that has taken place in this fashionable resort since the season opened was given on Wednesday night. The hotel was decorated throughout with Japanese lanterns and bunting. Proprietors Walter H. and G. M. Sandt of the Octagon Hotel have been entertaining for the last fortnight a big crowd of fashionables, who have contributed most of the social life to the resort. A cotillon will be given at the house the last week in July or the first in August, and for this event preparations are being made on an elaborate basis by most of the young folks in the cottages hereabouts. The Octagon cotil-lon is always a social event of the summer at Seabright The Capital city is represented at the Octagon by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Stout and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. White and their

SEA GIRT.

Special Correspondence of The Star. SEA GIRT, N. J., July 20, 1907 Now that the soldiers are out on the rifle talked about almost to the entire exclusion of those more intimately connected with the resort life of Sea Girt. Along the shore east of the camp grounds and northeast are three big hotels—the Parker House, Tremont and Beach House. At all of these a splendid season is now being enjoyed, helped out much, of course, by the presence of scores of people who have friends over at the camp. In fact, this is so much the case that orderlies are flying back and forth between the officers' quarters and the hostelries most of the time.

An informal dance will be held at the
